Robin Greene

When Jesse was little he came out of his bedroom and told me he was going to make a lot of money, and I ask him how are you going to do that?He told me that him and Roy had made a plan to pull all his teeth so the Tooth Fairy would bring a lot of money.HA HA

He was so beautiful, and had the biggest heart , and had great manners, and believed in sharing,he would give you the coat off his back if he thought you needed it.His smile was bright it would melt a snowmans heart. The love he gave to all that knew him was pressed in time that will never leave us.I don't know many people that had the energy he had, if you were down, he would make you laugh,his smile would bring the sun in on a winter day.Most of all Jesse knew in his heart that Jesus was the only hope to the problems that we face in this world, and so I know he did not want to leave us with sorrow in our hearts for him, he wanted us to get to him through Jesus. So he waits on us in Heaven. His father and I are very proud to be his Parents. He was a great brother to Melissa, and Roy,a wonderful uncle,and touched the hearts of many friends. He chose a special women to be his wife who will never stop Loving him,and had a son that is so special, and looks just like him.If you love some one ,tell them, because you may not get another chance!!!

I LOVE YOU MY SWEET JESSE 4-EVER AND EVER AND EVER!!

hey Jesse as i was reading what everyone was writing about memories of u 😞 I came to mind and i just wanted to share it with others who were blessed in sharing your life. well it was along time ago, to start susan and i got all dressed up, got in her car and drove to johnson co.to attend one of just many happy days of your life, your graduation, you were so happy that day because u had done something that not many had any hope of,susan gave you a reason and the hope in your heart.you were so happy walking out on that field to get your diploma,after you got it and it was all over susan took us out to dinner,then a few days later we picked you up and came back to my house. i left so you and susan could be alone. then i came back the to take you home and i just remember u had the biggest prettiest smile 😊 on your face and you couldnt stop telling susan you had the best time of your life and thanking her...i think thats when you both fell in love ❤️ to be honest you two made a wonderful couple.Jesse you will be sadly missed day after day, but now you're watching things from a better place with God by your side. i know my spelling's not good but i mean well in trying to share a little bit of your memories with others.susan ,colton, hazel, i hope this memory helps you in some way to know he had a happy life with you all and loved you all so very much....❤️❤️ your cousin arlene & mike

I was thinking about our time in Morehead when we took long walks around the campus at night and fed the ducks up at the lake. My favorite memory of that time was when you carried me on your shoulders- you always were so romantic. I miss you saying over and over" Do you love me? Do you love me? Do you love me?" Yes, yes. YES! soooo much!

roy greene

❤️ Even though my heart is breaking, I am going to say what I need to say-I remember when you sang that into our answering machine to Bub- and then you said 'Daddy loves you Bub-I said what I needed to say' You were a wonderful, loving daddy. I miss your strength and love- I always knew someone loved me as long as you were here. You always made me feel safe - like nothing or nobody could touch me. I remember you rushing home when Hazel and I thought we heard a woman screaming in the hills (it was a hound dog) but you made an hour and 15 minute trip in 50 minutes. You were (and are) my rock-my protector-my soulmate-my one true and forever love-Jessamine.

Love Infinity,

I am Jesse's aunt. His favorite aunt, when Jesse was a little boy he would only wear one shoe. I stopped at their house one day to see them and there was Jesse, running around with that one shoe on. He was giving me hugs and kisses and then he turned around to go play and he had a raw hot dog in his back pocket. I said "Jesse what is in your pocket" and he said in case I get hungry aunt Pammy. I laughed so hard at him I had tears running down my face. This is just one of the many wonderful memories I have of Jesse. I loved Jesse very much and I know he loved me also. He was a great person.

Colton

My dad and I had the most fun ever at the Lynyrd Skynyrd concert on New Years Eve 2008-2009!

The background of the entire image is a textured, mottled olive-green color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is a smaller, tighter bud, while the one on the right is larger and more fully bloomed, showing the characteristic spiral pattern of rose petals. Both roses are rendered in a slightly lighter shade of the background color, making them subtle but distinct.

Life Story

every hour, every thought, every smile...

September 2, 1997

Born in on November 11, 1979.

September 2, 1997

The first day of the best of my life began with meeting my Jess. I had met Jesse about a week earlier, but we hadn't really interacted. On September 2nd was when I first began to interact with him. It wasn't love at first sight, (although I thought Jesse was extremely handsome, well-groomed, and well-mannered) but rather love at first touch. Jesse would sometimes miss break just to talk to me about his beliefs and feelings. I soon found out that the tough guy everybody expected Jesse to be was a cover for the sweet, misunderstood young man underneath. I still wasn't attracted to him in a romantic way- until one day in March '98 when Jesse was making everyone feel his muscles- they were of considerable size and hard as a rock. I had hesitated, but he wouldn't let it go. Once I felt his arm - I was undeniably- irrevocably in love. I couldn't think of anything or anyone else. I could not sit still or eat hardly anything for two weeks- I was so lovesick. I need to explain something- for several years I had dreamed of a dark haired boy who I was in love with- I never saw his face just his build and his hair- dark as night- but it wasn't the looks that let me know Jesse was that boy- it was the feeling I had when I touched my dream man-and Jesse! I recognized that feeling the instant I touched my Jess. I fought my feelings for a couple of months, but in late May 1998 I gave in to them. Jesse and I began to talk of love and eventually we went on a date. I knew from that day in March that I could never love a man with the passion and intensity that I felt and feel for Jesse. We were joined for infinity in marriage on April 21st, 2000. Today, I still have a wonderful momento of our love, his name is Colton Lee Greene. Our love will last throughout time through our son. I read something that is so true, "A golden heart stopped beating , hard working hands put to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, he only takes the very best". To those of you who didn't get to know Jesse- I pity you. And to those of you who thought you knew him- but you truly misunderstood him- I pity you more- leave judgment to God- love everyone and remember to treat everyone with great kindness because you never know the battles they may be fighting. Jesse was always very quick to forgive others if they gave him a chance. To my Jess- I will love you for infinity - yours faithfully , Susan Greene Passed away on February 11, 2009 at the age of 29.

My husband, who I liked to call Jessamine, because he was all mine, was a wonderful and caring father to our son Colton. He always said to everyone, "If you need anything, call me". He sincerely meant those words because he truly loved helping others. I do not know how my son and I will survive without the laughter he filled our days with. We will love him for infinity.

Love throughout eternity,

Susan B. Greene & Colton "C-NO" Greene
